

Bio (long version):

Soprano April Bennett, an alumna of Wright State University, is an active soloist and chamber musician. She has performed with Bach Society of Dayton, the Dayton Opera Chorus, the Kettering Civic Band, the Miami Valley Symphony Orchestra and the Springfield Symphony Orchestra. Musical favorites include Magnificat (C.P.E. Bach), Messiah (Handel), Missa in Angustiis (Haydn), Elijah (Mendelssohn), and Stabat Mater (Pergolesi).

Mrs. Bennett maintains a private voice studio where she helps students of all ages find and gain confidence in using their unique instruments.

In addition to her roles as teacher and performer, Mrs. Bennett is a freelance editor and delights in refining the voices of writers, which is remarkably similar to working with students of singing.

In her spare time she reads, binges on BBC crime dramas, and trains for half-marathons. She lives with her husband near Yellow Springs, Ohio.

---

Bio (short version):

Soprano April Bennett performs a wide variety of genres, from oratorio to cabaret. In addition, she is a teacher of singing and a freelance book editor. An alumna of Wright State University, April makes her home near Yellow Springs, Ohio.

---